

Please locate the critical functions and instructions from the entry point to the exit (only including a set of functions to be true) that head to the backdoor and give the flag (i.e. . SOSNEAKY). Please include descriptions, call graph and control flow graph for answers (circled the critical functions and instructions in the graphs).